Transformational Leadership for Educators

Leading from the Inside Out in an Upside Down World

A Workshop for:

Principals, Assistant Principals, Instructional Leaders, Coaches, Teachers and others wanting to expand their leadership tool kits

This workshop is offered through:

PassageWorks Institute Boulder, CO • 80304 • Ph:303-247-0156 • Fax:303-247-0252 • www.passageworks.org

Leading from the Inside Out is supported by the Kalliopeia Foundation

Transform How You Lead!

High expectations, limited resources, and stressed staff require new approaches to educational leadership.

Overloaded schools need leaders who:

- Engage staff in constructive and collaborative processes
- Address challenges using social and emotional intelligence and cultural responsiveness
- Change whole systems with decisive and inspiring management practices

Learn How to:

- Manage conflict with clarity and compassion
- Develop cultural responsiveness
- Address the whole student — cognitive, cultural, social, and emotional needs
- Share leadership challenges and dilemmas with peers
- Lead from the inside out with social and emotional intelligence and authentic presence

The Workshop Tools

Presentations, simulations, experiential activities, plus individual and group coaching

The Workshop Foundations

Leading from the Inside Out is based on the cutting edge work of leadership experts such as Juanita Brown, Beverly Daniels-Tatum, Lisa Delpit, Daniel Goleman, Sonia Nieto, Otto Scharmer, Peter Senge, Susan Skjei and Margaret Wheatley.
